

Job Title: RF Technician LeadResponsibilities:

- Manage and Coordinate Technical Staff
- Program and Install two-way radios
- Install and service and maintain fixed and mobile two-way radio equipment.
- Diagnose and repair complex radio problems, including antenna systems, power hookups and radio mounting problems.
- Install base stations and repeaters, at job sites.
- Experience with RF test equipment to maintain and service two-way equipment.
- Setup and program repeaters and two-way radios.

Qualifications:

- Strong Project Management Skills
- Good Interpersonal relationships – Employee and Customer based
- Ability to read, interpret, and understand schematics
- Prior technical experience preferred
- A Team player who is focused providing exemplary customer service
- Ability to multi-task in a fast pace work environment
- Strong technical skills and must be detail oriented
- Strong communication skills and customer focus
- Need valid drivers license
- Pass drug screen
- Ability to complete work orders, service orders and other documents.
- Knowledgeable with different operation system on PC's
- Willing to work on job sites during various weather conditions, hours
- Willing to take training classes to support work related jobs.
- Ability to lift up to 70 lbs.
- Flexible hours and overnight travels is possible

Salary: DOE

Benefits: Medical, Dental, Simple IRA, Life Insurance

About Silke Communications:

Silke Communications has been serving wireless communications needs for 50 years. Our services range from provisioning, installation and maintenance of digital radio and data equipment to the construction and maintenance of the communications facilities and towers supporting our West Coast wide area digital network, FleetNet™.

Silke Communications has seven communications facilities, offices and shops: Find us in Vancouver, WA; Salem, OR; Eugene, OR; Roseburg, OR; Salinas/Monterey/Santa Cruz, CA; and Sacramento, CA. Our mobile fleet provides on-site service wherever our customers need it.

Our proprietary digital network, FleetNet™, supports users in all three states and reaches from Canada to Mexico. Visit us at www.silkecom.com.

Contacts: Please email resume to hr@silkecom.com